Anti-Personnel Mines and on their Destruction

Standing Committee of Experts on the General Status and Operation of the Convention

May 29-30, 2000

Geneva International Centre for Humanitarian Demining
7bis, av. de la Paix - Geneva

Co-Chairs: CANADA Mr. Dan Livermore, Ambassador for Mine Action
SOUTH AFRICA Mr. Bennie Lombard, Counsellor, Mission of South Africa, Geneva

Rapporteurs: BELGIUM Ms. Danielle Haven, Head of Non Proliferation & Disarmament Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs
ZIMBABWE Mr. Bebra G. Munodawafa, Ministry of Foreign Affairs

I. General Aspects

This meeting should serve to consolidate the work plan recommended by the SCE in January. The purpose of the meeting should be to review reports related to this work plan and make final recommendations to the Second Meeting of the States Parties (SMSP). In addition, this meeting should make final recommendations with respect to preparations for the SMSP.

Notes:

- The co-chairs are planning for a two-day meeting rather than a three-day meeting as originally proposed.
- States parties are reminded of the recommendations that states provide voluntary reports to the May meeting of the committee on (a) mines retained for training and development and (b) national implementation measures.
