

Fourteenth Meeting of States Parties
Draft paragraph on exploring the potential for cost-savings through cooperation

With a view to identify ways to enhance efficiency and further reduce costs, the Meeting of States Parties requests the Presidency to conduct consultations with States Parties of related conventions, in particular of the Convention on Cluster Munitions, and with related ISU's. The Presidency is requested to report on opportunities for cost-savings through cooperation as soon as practical but not later than two years from now.