

Prince Mired Bin Raad Bin Zeid Al-Hussein of Jordan
President-Designate of the 8MSP

His Royal Highness Prince Mired Bin Raad Al-Hussein of Jordan has been designated to preside over the Eighth Meeting of the States Parties to the Convention on the Prohibition of the Use, Stockpiling, Production and Transfer of Anti-Personnel Mines and on Their Destruction(8MSP).

Since 2004, Prince Mired has served as Chair of Jordan's National Committee for Demining and Rehabilitation. In addition, since 2000 he has served as President of the Hashemite Charitable Society for Soldiers with Special Needs and he is Vice President of the Higher Council for Persons with Disabilities.

Prince Mired has extensive military experience. He completed the Graduate Officers Course in Military Studies and Officer Training at the British Royal Military Academy, Sandhurst in 1990. This was preceded by two years military conscription to the Jordanian Armed Forces (1987 – 1989) and followed by further service to the Jordanian Armed Forces as Special Forces Officer (1990-1991); and Military Intelligence Officer (1991-1994). From 1995 to 1997 he served as Security and Intelligence Officer with Jordanian Security (1995–1997).

Prince Mired holds a Bachelor of Arts in International Relations and History and a Master of Arts in International Relations and Strategic Studies, both from Tufts University in Massachusetts, USA. Prince Mired also holds a Masters of Philosophy Degree in Historical Studies from the University of Cambridge, England.